

of any particular case according to the discretion of the Commissioner.

(2) Checking and controlling Motor Traffic in the State and also attending to the papers relating to motor matters.

(b) Yes, in the case of the Traffic Inspector; but the C. I. B. was constituted only in the current year and there is not sufficient work for a full-time officer.

(c) Please see answer (b) above. The C. I. B. was opened only in 1109 and Inspector Mr. Govindan Nayar was put in charge of it. Although there is no sufficient work for a full-timed officer in the C. I. B., the post was found necessary and therefore as a measure of retrenchment the post of the Traffic Inspector was abolished and the former officer asked to attend this work also.

(d) Gain, Rs. 23 per month.
